

Application and Admission Fee Policy

Regular Students - Applicants to graduate degree programs at New Mexico Tech must submit Application and Admission fees according to the schedule listed in the NMT Catalog.

Special Students - Special students will not be assessed either Application or Admission fees. Should they become applicants for graduate degree programs at New Mexico Tech, they will then be responsible for all fees.

Application and admission fees will not be required of graduate students who complete a graduate degree at New Mexico Tech and who wish to proceed directly to a second graduate degree (without leaving the university).

Application and admission fees are required of former graduate students who leave the Institute for any period of time, and then wish to return for a subsequent graduate degree.
